Carol Chen Memorial Essay Award for Community Services

In honoring Mrs. Chen's extraordinary contributions to the community and CAPSA and in celebrating her love for writing, this Essay Award is established to promote community services and to carry on Mrs. Chen's mission of making our society a better place.

Eligibility:

All CAPSA participants including adult volunteers, adult class students, coordinators, tutees, tutors, workshop attendees, and parents of tutees or tutors EXCEPT CAPSA Advisory Board members and officers are eligible to participate in this contest.

Criteria:

The essay should describe your significant community service experience and how your effort and involvement have made our community a better place. Essays will be judged based upon the impact of its message, literary voice, and writing style. It can be written in either English or Chinese and should be between 300 and 500 words. Essays exceeding the 500 word limit will be disqualified.

Selection & Award:

Three winners and several honorable mentions will be selected from the entries in May 2010. The winning entries will be published in the 2010 CAPSA Newsletter, along with entries that receive the commendation of the jury. First, second and third prize winners will receive $300, $250, and $200 respectively. Each honorable mention will receive a certificate. Prizes and certificates will be awarded at the CAPSA Annual Award Ceremony on May 22, 2010.

Deadline & Submission:

The completed application form must be hand-delivered, mailed to Mr. John Li at 14115 Silent Wood Way, North Potomac, MD 20878 or emailed to john.yuanson.li@gmail.com by April 10, 2010. An electronic copy of the essay must be emailed to john.yuanson.li@gmail.com by April 10, 2010. For more information, please contact John Li at 240-988-9369.

The Carol Chen Spirit:

Mrs. Carol Chen (1938-2009) was one of the founders of CAPSA in 1988 and an active and influential member of the CAPSA Advisory Board. She had an amazing career in the Montgomery County Public Schools (MCPS), serving from 1977 in many positions and ultimately as a parent community coordinator/specialist focusing on ESOL students and their families. Throughout her life she dedicated herself to community services. Her legacy endures in the hearts of all who had the privilege of knowing her. Mrs. Chen was an accomplished photographer, writer, nature lover, and an avid world traveler. We will forever miss her welcoming and friendly smiles, unlimited and resourceful ideas, relentless and "can-do" attitude, and persistent and professional working style. She has set a high bar and will remain a role model for all of us.
